

AML Statement

HOP is committed to ensuring that it has adequate controls to counter money laundering activities and terrorist financing activities, in line with the Money Laundering Regulations 2007.

This AML Statement sets out our policies in regard to the Anti Money Laundering (AML) legislation.

If you are a Landlord, Buyer or Vendor with HOP, you will be subject to an electronic Anti Money Laundering check as part of our diligence process. We will be unable to proceed with any work on behalf of our customers if we are unable to obtain the required information.

What does it mean?

We are required by law to verify the identity of any Landlords and Property Owners. When you complete our Landlord or Sales documentation, you will give us permission to carry out an electronic AML check, AML Risk Assessment or Land Registry Search as necessary, where required under AML Legislation.

We will utilise two separate online sources to verify you, or a use a service provider that does the same. This will cross check your supplied data against other online sources that can include Credit Data, International PEPs and Sanctions Lists, Passport and European ID Cards, Electoral Roll, plus household and utility bills.

To do this, we ask for the following information:

Proof of ID Photographic ID in accordance with Anti-Money laundering legislation, either a Passport or Driving Licence	<input type="checkbox"/> Passport	<input type="checkbox"/> Driving Licence
Proof of Address Proof of current address with a recent (within 3 months) Utility or Council Tax bill	<input type="checkbox"/> Utility Bill	<input type="checkbox"/> Council Tax
Proof of Ownership of Property Proof of home ownership of Property, such as a Mortgage Statement or Property Deeds	<input type="checkbox"/> Mortgage	<input type="checkbox"/> Deeds

What about my data?

HOP's policy commitment is applicable to all our customers, including Vendors, Buyers, Landlords and Tenants. Any identity-relating documents provided to us will be recorded and copied for audit purposes.

As a result, we obtain and hold - for a period of at least seven years - evidence pertaining to our customers' identity and, where appropriate, proof of ownership of property and source / destination of funds.

AML Statement

The information provided will only be used by HOP in relation to complying with these regulations, and will not be shared with any other party outside of the companies wholly owned by HOP, unless we are required to do so under law.

We have a legal duty in certain circumstances to disclose information to the Serious Organised Crime Agency where we suspect that a transaction on behalf of a Client involves money laundering.

If, whilst marketing your Property for you, it becomes necessary to make a Money Laundering Disclosure, we would not be able to inform you that a disclosure has been made or the reasons for it.

For customers other than private individuals

For customers who are not private individuals, such as corporate customers and private companies, the business must obtain information that is relevant e.g., company registration number, registered address and evidence that the individuals have the authority to act for the company. A search at Companies House will reveal details of Directors and the Company Secretary. If subsequently we identify a person who has control of/owns 25% or more the business, we will take steps to identify those individuals.

Our policy, and our procedures, are reviewed annually to ensure they adequately reflect the risk of money laundering to the company.
